Dates highlighted in yellow apply only to students graduating that term. These dates reflect Graduate School deadlines and are inflexible. Missing a deadline could delay your graduation to the following term, and additional registration may be required.

The Oral Defense Deadline reflects when the exam must be entered in GIMS by the College of the Arts. You should plan to complete your oral defense no later than the night before this deadline so that your committee can return results to the College of the Arts for processing. If your defense is not logged in by the deadline, you will not graduate until the following term - *there are no exceptions to this rule.

Dates in italics are tentative and will be confirmed when the Graduate School publishes its calendar at the beginning of the academic year.
